

Vale Frances

MONDAY 6 JANUARY 2025

Many of you will remember Frances Milne who co-founded Bridge for Asylum Seekers. Sadly, she passed away on Monday.

Frances was also one of the founders of our sister organisation, Balmain For Refugees. She was intelligent, highly committed and incredibly hard working.

Through a lifetime of work dedicated to these organisations Frances saved countless people from destitution and, in the instance of Balmain for Refugees, saved many lives.

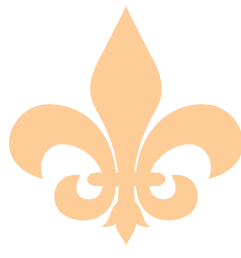

The funeral for Frances Milne will be at Camellia Chapel, Macquarie Park on Friday 17 January at 10:30am, with refreshments afterwards at midday.

For those unable to attend, the live streaming is scheduled for: Friday 17 January 2025 at 10:30 AM (Australia/Sydney).

A PIN will be required so please contact Janet Castle (Bridge: 0402 614 586) prior to Friday and then scan or click/tap this QR to access on the day.

The scheduled start time may include a 15-minute testing window, with live streams commencing shortly after. The streaming will be recorded so please use the link above to watch at a later time.

Very thoughtfully, Frances' family have asked that, instead of flowers, donations be made to Bridge for Asylum Seekers via scanning or clicking the link below...

Clients receive directly 99.5c of each dollar donated

Bridge for Asylum Seeker's annual general meeting was held on 17 December, 2024. Please click/tap below to read our annual report.

To those of you who have been able to donate to our end-of-calendar-year appeal, thank you. Your donation will make a significant difference to someone's world.

*With warm regards,
Janet Castle — Chair, Bridge for Asylum Seekers*
